

THE Big Haul

Take the money and run—to buy these delightfully extravagant goods.

1. A LEATHER-PERFECT LAPTOP

Celebrating the 15th anniversary of the ThinkPad, the Lenovo ThinkPad Reserve Edition ($4,999)—encased in rich leather and part of a limited-edition run of 5,000—is one of the most attractive notebook computers you'll ever flip open. And since it performs as well as it looks (it's fully updated with the latest in portable tech savvy and boasts a wealth of executive-class support services), consider us sold. Available at RCS Computer Experience, 575 Madison Avenue, 877-746-7727; thinkpadreserve.com.

2. GET LIT

Illume candles—made of hand-poured natural soy and beeswax spiked with essential oils—are now available in a WinterBliss collection ($5-$30), which includes cranberry kir, vanilla amberwood, and balsam and cedar fragrances. The lovely, retro-style packaging is a bonus. Available at Aromatics, 120 East 67th Street, 212-838-9196; illumecandles.com.

3. SEDUCTIVE SIPS

The allure of Hennessy Cognac is even greater now that it can be had in a limited-edition Hennessy X.O. decanter with gift box ($200). Each newly designed, crystal-adorned bottle is numbered, and every bit as lavish as the box. Available at Crush Wine & Spirits, 153 East 57th Street, 212-980-9463. —AMANDA THURSWELL

4. GOT YOUR BACK

A shirt from the Ike Behar Tailored collection ($295) is handcrafted in the US with West Indian Sea Island cotton and Australian mother-of-pearl buttons. Rich, indeed. Available at Barneys New York, 660 Madison Avenue, 212-826-8900; ikebehar.com.—A.T.

5. LOUD AND CLEAR

George ($499), a sleek iPod docking system with a wireless remote that has full iPod functionality, was the winner of the 2007 Macworld Best of Show Award. It's easy to see why, considering its simplicity, excellent sound quality, and stylish good looks. Available at Apple, 767 Fifth Avenue, 212-336-1440; 103 Prince Street, 212-226-3126. [6]
